Procedure for applying to the recognition of international mobility during the Ph.D. (diploma supplement)

The diploma supplement¹ for the recognition of international mobility during the Ph.D. allows you to value a research stay in a higher education and/or research institution abroad.

As the cotutelle is recognized by the double degree, this diploma supplement cannot be applied for this recognition.

The doctoral student must make the request at the time of submitting the defense file on ADUM.

The application form can be downloaded online from the doctoral student's ADUM space.

Conditions to be met:

- 1/ Justify a period of at least one quarter spent in a country outside France. Split stays can be counted if several stays of at least 30 consecutive days have been made in the country(ies) (certificate of stay to be attached);
- 2/ Perform part of the defense in a language other than French;
- 3/ At least one member of the jury belongs to a higher education institution in a country outside France (composition of the jury to be attached);
- 4/ The authorization to defend is granted on the basis of reports written by at least two researchers or teacher-researchers attached to higher education institutions in two separate States outside France (excluding cotutelle);
- 5/ The language of writing of the thesis manuscript must comply with the rules set by the institution of registration for the Ph.D. and/or the doctoral school².

¹ The award of the supplement to the doctoral degree is concretized by the issuance of a certificate provided by the operating institution.

² In accordance with Article 21 of the Ministerial Order of 25 May 2016 establishing the national framework for training and the procedures leading to the award of the national doctoral diploma.
